

“Taste and See” is a Practical Leadership Training Camp in an international environment for Children's Leaders.

The best way of learning is by doing. And if you work together with people from different countries, with different experience and different ways of doing things, you could learn a lot! “Taste and see” is the opportunity for you to do this.